Public Street Name Change –
Rodeo Road
Council File No. 17-0704

NOTICE OF PROPOSED STREET NAME CHANGE

This office is investigating a proposal to change the name of Rodeo Road from Gramercy Place to approximately 250 feet Westerly of Jefferson Blvd. and to establish it as Obama Boulevard.

As an affected property owner or resident, you may submit written comments (pro or con) concerning this proposed street name change within 30 days of the date of this notification. Mail them to Bureau of Engineering, Land Development & GIS Division, 201 N. Figueroa Street, Suite 200, Los Angeles, CA 90012. Please include the lot number, County Assessors Number or address of the property you have interest in, on any correspondence regarding this matter. Refer any questions to: Phillip Martinez at (213) 202-3487.

Thirty days after this notification, a report will be prepared with recommendations made to the City Council based on our findings. The City Clerk will schedule the report for consideration by the City Council's Public Works & Gang Reduction Committee. Look under Council File No. 17-0704 for status of this name change.

Sincerely,

Edmond Yew, Manager
Land Development and GIS Division
Bureau of Engineering

 I support the change to Obama Boulevard I oppose the change to Obama Boulevard
